

Spaghetti Western Documentary Questions

Part 1:

1. 60% of all the movies ever made are what type (genre) of movie?
2. In the 1960's African American and Native American civil rights movements caused the Western genre to be seen as _____ and helped lead to the traditional Western films' decline.
3. What famous Italian director made Spaghetti Westerns famous in America? (Spell his name the best you can.)
4. What was the foreign film that inspired him to start making Spaghetti Westerns starting with the movie A Fist Full of Dollars?
5. What is an anti-hero? Can you give an example of an anti-hero from any movies you have seen?
6. What was one of Hollywood's guidelines for violence concerning guns in the 1960's?
7. What literary device was used extensively in Spaghetti Westerns?

Part 2:

8. What was the film Django known for?
9. Later Spaghetti Western were set in and around what country's revolution?
10. Q: What is one way that you can tell that a genre is in decline?
A: When a film begins to _____ itself it is a sign that the genre is in decline.
11. What types of films began to replace Spaghetti Westerns in the 80's and 90's?

Five movies you should see if you are interested in the Spaghetti Western or the Western genre:

1. A Fist Full of Dollars
2. The Good the Bad and the Ugly
3. Django (the original)
4. Once Upon a Time in the West
5. The Man With No Name