It started with a flash in the sky,
and a ripple through the clouds.
The hunger is what brought it here--and feed it did, until the Marvel Heroes were no more.

They were replaced by soulless monsters, driven only by an insatiable hunger for human flesh.

After they ran out of food, Reed Richards devised a plan to lure his counterpart from another dimension into a deadly trap. Thanks to Magneto, who had managed to stay uninfected, Reed's plan failed, leaving him and the rest of the Zombified
Fantastic Four stranded in another dimension.

Magneto has destroyed
the machine that allowed their passage to that other reality--an action
he paid for--with his life.

The Silver Surfer appeared in the skies above the zombies to inform them that Galactus is on his way, and will devour
Earth and everything on it. They didn't care.

Shortly before Galactus arrived, they overpowered the Surfer and ate him...each gaining a portion of his power cosmic in the process.
Now Galactus is here--and he has no idea what he's in for.

This is no world of Marvel Heroes.

This is the world of:

How are we gonna defeat this guy?!

I mean-- just look at him!

I'm with Cage on this one. This guy seems a bit out of our league! Especially now that Reed and The Fantastic Four are in that other dimension.

You can go hide under a rock for all I care--but I'm not giving up until a chunk of flesh from that giant is in my gut.

Exactly!

We'll find a way to defeat him. His size is what should make us want to do this!

The bigger they are the longer it takes to eat all of them!

Now follow my lead! In case you've forgotten-- we've got cosmic powers of our own!

Give him everything you've got! Don't let up until he's on his back and we're ripping pieces off him!

I admire your resolve--it is a trait I have come to note among the denizens of few of the planets I have consumed.

Galactus has devoured countless worlds and battled armadas in the process. Your assault is little more than a nuisance.

This conflict will be at its inevitable end very soon.

He's bluffing--don't let up! We're bound to find a weak spot sooner or later!

I'm not so sure, Hank! I don't think we're causing him a lick of pain!

UZOOSH!!

It told you jerks we couldn't--
CRAP!!

That's it! I'm out of here! I don't know about you guys--but I don't have much more body to lose and I doubt any of us could survive having what's left of our bodies vaporized!

I'm calling it a day, too!! And I'm also putting in a vote for Tony as team leader!

Or anyone else who wants to lead us away from this thing!

Fine. Fine!!

Fall back so we can regroup!

Hulk want to eat purple man--but not want to die!

Hulk not fight purple man alone!

We all want to eat him, Hulk. That's what we do now. We're going to go someplace where we can come up with a plan and then we're going to try again.

It doesn't look like he's following us.

Of course. He's here to eat the planet--not us. We stopped being worthy of his attention the second we stopped trying to prevent him from achieving his goal.

Where to now?

We go to my lab--we can work there--find a way to hurt him. That's what we need.

Follow me.

Pym still has lab? Hulk not see Pym in lab since hunger take over.

I've kept it secret until now--but I need something that's in it, or else I'm not going to be able to work long enough to find a way to defeat Galactus.

You'll understand when we get there.

Uh...Is that Janet's body?

I think you'll all agree--desperate times call for desperate measures. I can explain everything--just give me a second.

And again--bear with me here and let me explain before you do anything rash.

You see, it's--

What? It's what?

We don't have time to play games here, soldier. What was it that you were keeping secret?!

Nothing-- it--

--it was Jan--I had to kill Jan. She attacked me and there was nothing I could do-- that was it.

Elsewhere in the city...

You're not one of them-- you're not a zombie!

I am the Black Panther. I can understand how you could think I was infected--given my present condition...but yes, I am alive...for now.

We thought there were no living left-- we thought We were the last ones.

Surprise-- you're not.

It's a trick! He's working with them! Just look at him! Why else would he be carrying that head?!

He's right--this is a trap. We need to kill him and get out of here! We need to find Magneto and get back to Asteroid M before we're found!

Say the word, Cortez, and I'll take his head clean off!

We don't know anything about this man! Nobody do anything!

Screw you, Cortez! I'm taking him out before we're all killed!!

Whatever this Asteroid M is-- if they can't get to it--I want on it. As you said, I was only defending myself. I pose no threat to you.

I just want to get away from this place.

Of course we will take you with us. I couldn't live with myself if I left another human being alive down here--knowing the inevitable.

Thank you for being understanding. I will find a way to repay you.

But, Cortez--!!

Not another word, do you understand? We are all that is left. To ensure the survival of our species we're going to need all the help we can get!

Fine. Let's put this thing out of its misery and then we'll get back up to the Asteroid.

No, that is Janet Van Dyne, the Wasp and my friend. She will come to the Asteroid with us.

Under supervision she will not be a threat.

We've been here for days-- do you think they're going to figure something out before that giant eats the planet?

Let's just let the big brains think and do their thing. Do you have a seven?

Go fish.

Stark, Banner, and Pym are working together on this. They're some of the brightest minds on the planet. They're not going to let us get eaten.

Why is it you still wear that thing anyway? The mask. It's ripped all to shreds and it's not like you've got any kind of secret identity. So why bother?

The hunger--the way it is-- I know I would do it again right now if I had the chance. That's just the way things are now.

But after doing it--after eating my wife and aunt, the only two people left in this world that really loved me...after knowing what I've become...I couldn't ever look myself in the mirror-- and I don't want to chance it.

Right--forget I asked, you sissy. You got any jacks?

Just wanted to let you kids know--he's back.

He's back?

Vibranium--fresh from Wakanda... probably the last mined and refined Vibranium ever made.

And let me tell you--Wakanda has seen better days. Also, you wouldn't believe how fast we can fly now that we have that Surfer's powers--I swear I was going faster than the Quinjet ever could.

This is perfect. Between this and the crystals we took from Strange's sanctuary, the stuff from the Baxter Building and what we stole from Castle Doom in Latveria--we've got everything we need.

Oh, God!! I can feel the hunger taking over again--I'm turning!

Well, do it, you fool! We need your help.

Ugh-- I hate this!

Agh--there we go--that's a juicy one.

Oh, jeez--when did he start doing that?!

Right after you started going out gathering supplies for us. We got the idea after those pieces of the Surfer fell out of me when we first arrived at the lab.

I've been constantly re-eating those bits since we got here. It's doing a remarkable job of fighting off the hunger.

I've been doing it, too--we all have--except for Spider-Man and Luke Cage--they say their bodies are messed up enough.

It's not perfect. This sickness we all have has made our insides so acidic that we practically dissolve everything we eat--so these pieces get a little bit smaller every time we eat them.

But it's kept me from turning into the Hulk--and it's helped us all keep our wits about us so we can do our work.

Give me a knife--I'm trying that right now.

No--don't bother. We don't have time, we need to get the amplifier assembled. Besides, by now the morsels in your belly must be completely dissolved.

Now help us get this thing assembled--I'm anxious to see if it works. If we hurry we could be over in Times Square taking that monster down by nightfall.

I'm ready for fresh meat!

Whoa. Who called in the cavalry?

More like, who invited them to dinner?

We were lucky this time. Another expedition down to the planet would be too risky. We must assume the worst and wait for Magneto to contact us again.

We can't hold out hope that he's survived-- it's just too unlikely.

Welcome back. I couldn't really make out everything you said on your com during the return trip--you couldn't find Magneto but you found someone else?

I suppose this is him.

Hello.

Name's Reynolds, Science Guy-- oh my God! you brought back a specimen!

I can't wait to examine you! Can you guys imagine what we could learn from this?

We could find a cure.

Come... closer!

Hey! She's a nasty one, eh?!

She is my friend and you will treat her with respect, despite her present condition...

Hand her over, Panther. We had an agreement. Reynolds isn't going to hurt her--he's going to try to cure her.

Those are my terms-- otherwise we'll shoot it out of an air lock.

Careful with her--she's a biter.

I can see that.

Hendricks.

Yes, sir.

Once our new member gets settled in and cleaned up, I'd like you to give him the full tour of this place. Answer any of his questions--make him feel at home.

I'd be happy to.

Before I go on a tour of this place--I'd like to try and figure out a more efficient way to get around. This crutch isn't going to work forever.

I'm confident we can fix something up for you. We have vast resources onboard the Asteroid.

Actually, I think I can help out with that. I recognize you, but I don't know if you recognize me, Black Panther.

My name is Forge.

I know a thing or two about prosthetic limbs.

I can see that.

There are others here on the Asteroid too, there're twelve of us in total--including you. I'll make sure you meet everyone.

The city

It looks like they might actually be doing some damage. That Galactus fella looks hurt--at least a little bit.

Good--then that means he can be hurt. This might actually work!

Just a few more adjustments... almost there.

It's space god on the menu tonight!

Spider-Man! We're almost ready--get over here! This won't work if we don't all fire at the same time!

Like I say--we've all got to fire at the same time--if not--it won't work. And we've probably only got one shot at this, so we've got to make it count.

NOW!!

UZAP!!
